

CANADIANS REPORT ON TREATMENT—

Hong Kong Winnipeggers Reached

Prince Robert Arrives To Speed Men Home

By Lloyd Stinson, Staff Writer
Special to The Evening Tribune

(MILITARY) — The 10th Canadian Infantry Brigade, which was held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, has been ordered to return to Canada. The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force. The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force. The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force. The men of the brigade, who were held in Hong Kong since the Japanese surrender, are being sent home by the Royal Canadian Air Force.

— ST. JOHN PRESS
REUTERS