

Aid Rushed to Grenadiers

Brig. Kay at Kowloon To Plan Evacuation

By WILLIAM STEWART
HONG KONG, Sept. 5—Brig. O. M. Kay, Canadian military attaché in the colony of Hong Kong and former commander of the Winnipeg Grenadiers, arrived in Kowloon today to make arrangements for the care and evacuation of Canadian prisoners.

BRIG. O. M. KAY
In U.S. Army uniform

Brig. Kay will be in Kowloon until Aug. 31 and will then be flown to Hanoi. He will be in charge of the evacuation of Canadian prisoners and will be assisted by Capt. Walter Cross, deputy commander of the Canadian contingent of the British forces.

From his base Brig. Kay will be in command of the evacuation of Canadian prisoners in Hong Kong and will be in charge of the evacuation of Canadian prisoners in Hong Kong and will be in charge of the evacuation of Canadian prisoners in Hong Kong.

Brig. Kay will be in command of the evacuation of Canadian prisoners in Hong Kong and will be in charge of the evacuation of Canadian prisoners in Hong Kong.

The British forces have been holding more than 100 Canadian prisoners in all Allied prisons and camps. Major Sullivan, of Toronto, has also everything possible to help them during the evacuation.

Because of military conditions in the colony, it has been impossible for the Canadian military attaché to visit the prisoners in the camps.

Prisoners in other camps are being held in the British forces which is set up at the same time in Kowloon.

Prisoners in other camps are being held in the British forces which is set up at the same time in Kowloon.

Prisoners in other camps are being held in the British forces which is set up at the same time in Kowloon.