SHAMSUIPO CAMP, Kowloon, Sept. 5—(CP Cable).—Canadian prisoners of war here are eager for official word of their safety to reach relatives.

Western Canadians here include: Capts. J. C. M. Spence, Fort William, U. Lait, Vancouver; G. Porteous, Saskatoon; Lieuts. R. Queen-Hughes, H. E. MacKechnie, F. V. Dennis, J. E. Dunderdale, J. E. Park, R. A. B. Campbell; Majors E. Hodgkinson, J. E. Bailie, K. G. Baird, all Winnipeg.; Sgt. T. O. Jacobson, Vancouver.

quickly from hut to hut in the camp where the Canadians are most likely to remain concentrated until their departure for home.

Twenty-six Canadians who were in hospital at the time of the liberation were taken aboard the hospital ship Oxfordshire which is to sail shortly for Melbourne. Last Sunday morning a second hospital ship, the former New Zealand passenger vessel Maugau, drew into the harbor.

The Empress of Australia, a trans-Atlantic liner in peacetime, arrived at Hong Kong Tuesday with some 3,000 R.A.F. personnel including airfield construction groups. The men will temporarily join naval forces in the occupation of Hong Kong and the Kowloon area.
