

REPORTED SAFE: Mrs. George Trist, 266 Queenston st., has received word from Ottawa that her husband, Major Trist (above) has been unofficially reported safe in Allied hands at Hong Kong. Originally second in command of the Winnipeg Grenadiers, Major Trist was made acting officer commanding after Lt.-Col. J. R. Sutcliffe was killed during the defense of Hong Kong. This is the first actual word Mrs. Trist has had of her husband. (See other pictures of some of the Grenadiers now reported safe on Page 4.)
