Many Manitobans Safe in Far East

Happy families are telephoning The Tribune daily to deliver items of news about their sons and husbands who are reported safe after Hong Kong.

Mrs. D. C. Morrison, who is staying with her parents, at Ste. 4, The Ambassador, got a wire to say Pte. Douglas Morrison is safe and well. This came on the heels of a card, mailed in August, 1944. He received 11 letters from his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith, 89 Gertie st., have heard their son, L.-Cpl. W. J. C. Smith, is in good health. He was in the reserve before the war. A brother, Cpl. Walter R. Smith, served with the motor ambulance corps in Italy; he is expected home soon; another brother, LS. Ernest Smith, is awaiting navy discharge.

Miss Mae Tait, 210 Linden ave., sends a picture of Pte. Bill Rogers, who is now reported safe.

Pte. Walter McLeod, Kihasota, is also in safe hands. His wife died this spring of typhoid, writes her mother, Mrs. Holmes Anderson. The two children, Howard and Gilmore, are being cared for by an aunt.

Rfn. Frederick Kyryluik's safety has brought joy to his mother, Mrs. Mary Kyryluik, Vita, Man. He was born at Vita 25 years ago, joined the army in 1940.

Mrs. Betty Huard, 251 Patrick st., brought in a picture of her husband, Pte. Raymond Huard, with two other Grenadiers, all safe and sound. They are Pte. A. C. Thomas, whose wife lives at 548 Ross ave., and Pte. William Dube, of Wynyard, Sask.
