

ASKED FOR AUTOGRAPH: One of the first to reach Shamshuipo camp and greet Canadian war prisoners was Commander Peter MacRitchie, who landed at Kowloon with a force from the Prince Robert. Commander MacRitchie's cables of the liberation from the Japs appeared in The Tribune. He is shown here autographing a diary for a prisoner in the Canadian barracks at Shamshuipo.—(R.C.N. Photo.)