

15 Grenadiers Due Here Today

Winnipeg Grenadiers who will arrive at the C.P.R. station at 6.45 p.m. today are:

L.-Cpl. J. C. Matheson, Cpl. J. R. McGavin, Pte. T. Mulvaney, Pte. W. G. Nicholson, Pte. W. Slovinski, all of Winnipeg; Pte. W. D. Inglis, Kenton, Man.; Pte. W. H. Savage, Beaconia, Man.; Pte. W. A. Jones, Fort William.

Seven more men for points in eastern Canada will arrive at 7.45 p.m.

Winnipeg families continue to phone up the good news of the safety of their servicemen:

Mrs. Besta Cauldwell, 721 McGee st., received a telegram from Ottawa reporting that her husband, Com. Sgt.-Maj. Francis Bertrum Cauldwell, was safe with the Allies Sept. 19. He joined the Winnipeg Grenadiers two days before war broke out.

William Hobson, 381 Lipton st., also heard his son, Edwin Spencer Hobson, was safe.
