

Largest draft of Winnipeg Grenadiers, 108 officers and men, arrived in Winnipeg over C.P.R. lines Tuesday evening to be greeted by hundreds of relatives and friends. In No. 1 a tall Grenadier leans over arms of military police holding back the crowd to kiss his wife. Big happy grins are much in evidence in No. 2 as Grenadiers and relatives meet. In No. 3 a Grenadier dad hugs his son. Mother and wife in No. 4 hang onto the arm of mother, P.O. and Mrs. A. G. Agerback, 89 Hallett ave. And in No. 6 Sgt. R. Manchester, 34 Morecambe Lodge. Sgt. Manchester's dad was Pte. Leo Casder of Neepawa is well-present too. Cpl. Ken Agerback, came by sisters and nieces.
