

Far East Men Arrive Today

Twenty liberated prisoners of war from the Far East are scheduled to arrive in Winnipeg today, over Canadian National and Canadian Pacific lines. In addition to the repats the trains, which left Vancouver Wednesday, are carrying liberated British prisoners of war.

The following personal will arrive at the C.P.R. depot at 6.45 p.m.: Pte. W. J. Tuckett, Winnipeg; Pte. G. W. Wheatcroft, Winnipeg; Pte. L. Aitken, Kenora, Ont.; Pte. A. Devillers, Winnipeg; Cpl. W. C. Purse, Darlingford, Man.; Pte. J. S. A. Houston, Winnipeg; Pte. Ambrose, Wood Mountain, Sask.; Cpl. Purse, Roland, Man.; Sgt. Darragh, Portage la Prairie; L/Cpl. R. J. Nixon, Winnipeg.

Arriving at 7.45 p.m. at the C.N. station are: Pte. G. E. Williams, Laurier, Man.; Pte. E. W. Cole, Swan River, Man., and Pte. Olason, Grand Forks, N.D.

On train schedule No. 1915 which is bringing liberated British prisoners, the following Winnipeg men will arrive as hospital cases at 11.10 p.m., C.N. station: Capt. J. A. Norris, Pte. R. V. Bennett, Pte. A. Bourbonniere, Pte. J. Jackson, Pte. M. Kudlovich, Pte. E. McKnight and Pte. G. Watt.

British liberated prisoners will arrive on train schedule No. 1916, arriving at the C.P. station at 6.45 p.m.