

Four Grenadiers Welcomed Here

Four more Winnipeg Grenadiers, recently liberated from Japanese prison camps, returned home to their families Wednesday night over C.P.R. and C.N.R. lines.

They are: Pte. Kenneth Hogarth, Elmwood; Pte. D. Davidson, 905 Jessie ave.; Sgt. C. R. Banendine, Winnipeg Beach, and Pte. J. L. McCoy, Hollywood, Calif.

Pte. Davidson was held at Shamshapoo where he lost 60 pounds. He helped build an airport while imprisoned.

Sgt. Banendine had an extra big welcome from his children, Gloria, 10, and Ronald, 6. Also at the station was his wife and many relatives and friends.

Pte. McCoy worked in the nickel mines in Oeyama. He came here from California on the outbreak of war to join the Grenadiers..
